Bellary, 30 September 1934

To,

The Commissioner of Excise,

Government of Madras

Madras

Sir,

I beg to refer to the Endorsement of 19. Septr. 1934 by the Asstt. Commissioner of Excise, Bellary, Dcs. No. ... my petition of 15 August 1934 and to request that any circumstances may kindly be reconsidered, as I have had been ignorant of the rules of the Government.

If my husband had Survived he would have been quite a different one and I would not have given the Government the least trouble with similar petitions.

I am a widow quite destitute of all comforts after the death of my husband in him I had all facilities.

For which act of kindness, I shall ever be grateful.

I beg to remain,

Sir,

Your most obedient

& humble servant

To,

The Assistant Commissioner of Excise,

Bellary Sub Division

Bellary,

Sir,

In obedience to your favour No. L. Dis. B. R. 476/34 Dt 26 August 1934, I widow Fathima Bee of the late Excise Peon Mowla Saheb, beg to state that I was not aware of the fact that the government was compassionating helpless dependants of the deputed Government servants and also the ruling restricted to admit claims within one year.

It is therefore requested that the claim may kindly be reconsidered, I being a helpless widow after all.

Apologizing your honour in anticipation

I beg to remain,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant

Returned

It was 14 years back that the late peon Mowla Sahib died. The petitioner was already informed that the condi for the grant of Compassionate gratuity do not permit the entertainment of such applications after one year from the date of demise of the Govt Servt the petitioner's case cannot be considered being too late. The rules for the grant of gratuity were not in force when the late peon died.

Pension - compassionate gratuity - petition from the widow of late Excise peon Mowla Sahib.

f-1 cf Petn dated 30-8-34 from the widow [illegible]

Note

The petitioner submitted a petition to the A.C. Bellary Sub Div in August 1934. The A.C. returned the petition stating that the peon's case cannot be considered, as the petition has been submitted 14 years after the death of the peon. The petitioner has now submitted a petition to the Commr. stating that she is ignorant of the rules and requesting that her claim may be considered.

Under rule 6 (ii) of the Madras Compassionate Gratuities Rules, compassionate gratuity shall not ordinarily be granted, when the petition for the grant is submitted more than one year after the date of the Govt. order, [illegible] special reasons for condoning the delay. In the case under consideration, the petitioner's ignorance of the rules as the reason for the delay cannot be considered as a special reason. The petitioner is not therefore entitled to gratuity. For orders whether the petition may be rejected with reference to para 2, G.O. 432 Finance (Pension) dated 7-8-31. [illegible] 11.10.34.
